

Did I Offend You?

1 Corinthians 8

Introduction:

- A. SOMETIMES, WITHOUT REALIZING IT, WE CAN BE VERY INSENSITIVE:
 - 1. Homeschooled parent: I can't believe any Christian parent would allow their children to go to public schools.
 - 2. Public-schooled parent: those homeschooled children are socially backward.
 - 3. Republican to Democrat: how can you call yourself a Christian?
 - 4. Person against small families: Don't you know God said to "be fruitful and multiply?"
 - 5. Person against "large" families: Don't you know what causes that? They have birth-control, you know.
- B. HUMOROUS OR DAMAGING?
 - 1. There are times when light humor is understood and enjoyed by all.
 - a. Often, these very same statements are thrown out with thoughtlessness, sarcasm, or insensitivity.
 - b. As important, statements like these typically reveal our personal convictions.
 - 2. These convictions – along with how we reveal them – are the focus of this sermon.

Discussion:

- I. WE ALL HAVE KNOWLEDGE
 - A. The purpose of knowledge is to bring us to and build us up in the faith. Eph. 4:11-16
 - B. How we share these beliefs are just as important as the beliefs themselves. 1 Cor. 8:1-13
 - 1. School choices: public/private vs. home-school, etc.
 - 2. Family size: "stewardship" (sm) vs. "be fruitful" (lrg).
 - 3. Holiday participation: just a celebration vs. not condoning religious error/paganism.
 - 4. Denominational bake sales: stewardship vs. not condoning sin.
- II. KNOWLEDGE PUFFS UP / LOVE EDIFIES
 - A. Can we still have "unity of the faith" if we come to different applications regarding various matters?
 - B. Case in Point: Meats offered to idols. 1 Cor. 8
 - 1. All agree that idolatry is sinful.
 - 2. Yet one applied that belief to "eat no meat."
 - 3. Another applied that belief to "eat meat."
 - C. Our modern convictions:
 - 1. All want what is best for our children's walk with the Lord (no sin in our choice)
 - 2. All want to be "good stewards" but come to different convictions about birth control and faith.

Love Is The How (1 Cor. 13:4-7)
- III. PRACTICALLY
 - A. Be mindful of others. Rom. 14:1-3; 1Cor. 8:7-9; 10:24
 - B. Do not judge the servant of God: he stands before God, not you. Rom. 14:4
 - C. Use your words to build up, not destroy. Eph. 4:29
 - D. Whatever you do, do in service to the Lord. 1 Cor. 10:23, 31; Rom. 14:5-8

Conclusion:

- A. Clearly, we all have knowledge: but how we use that knowledge toward others is of vital importance.
- B. Consider the conscience of one another as they stand before God's judgment seat, not yours.
